

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

INTERIM SUSPENSION – Antonia S. Bevis

Supreme Court No. 307, 2010. Effective Date: October 13, 2010

By Order of the Delaware Supreme Court dated October 13, 2010, Antonia S. Bevis, a Delaware lawyer who was admitted to the Delaware Bar in 1995, was immediately suspended from the practice of law in Delaware, pending final disposition of all attorney disciplinary proceedings. In its Order, the Court concluded that Ms. Bevis, a solo practitioner, had engaged in professional misconduct which demonstrates she poses a significant threat of substantial harm to the public and to the orderly administration of justice. The suspension was based on evidence Ms. Bevis had failed to provide competent (Rule 1.1) and diligent (Rule 1.3) representation in three client matters in the Family Court of Delaware and that she had violated a June 2010 Supreme Court Order (Rules 3.4 and 8.4(d)) regarding her practice of law.

The Delaware Court of Chancery has appointed Leslie B. Spoltore, Esquire (302) 622-4203 Receiver of Ms. Bevis's law practice.
